

Direct Transfer Agreements (DTA)

The Washington state institutions below offer direct transfer agreements (DTA) to Seattle Colleges students who complete Associate of Arts and Associate of Science DTA degrees. The DTA associate degrees are recognized as fulfilling most, if not all, of the general education requirements for these institutions. Students who complete a DTA will normally be granted junior standing upon admission. Students should check with their intended transfer institution for further details regarding any additional general education, major prerequisites, and admission requirements.
